

INSIDE PARK HERITAGE CUISINE PRIX-FIXE DINNERS

$35 per person ($41 with suggested wine pairing)

For reservations, please call (212) 593-3333 or reserve online at opentable.com.

Executive Chef Matthew Weingarten

Pastry Chef Miran Shim

January 12–17, 2009

Seafood Paella

Hailing from Valencia, our Paella is made in traditional blue steel pans that toast the saffron packed rice just right. This Paella features homemade chorizo, mussels, clams, squid, merluza and, of course, peas.

To start: A small collection of tapas

Dessert: Flan with Seville Orange

January 19–24

Traditional Cassoulet

Made with tarbaise beans, herb-braised lamb shoulder, duck confit, Toulouse sausage and olivewood smoked pork belly. Served with Sharp Greens and Toasted Walnut Dressing.

Dessert: Croustade Languedocienne (Quince and Prune Croustade with Strudel Dough and Crème Fraîche)

January 26–31

Bouillabaisse

Classic and correct. We will be serving the original from Marseilles, France, with seven fishes, including scorpionfish, conger eel, and rouget. Presented in the traditional fashion – with the Broth and Rouille Toasts to start, followed by a platter of the boiled seafood and vegetables.

Dessert: Lavender Meringue with Preserved Apricots

February 2–7

Choucroute Garni

The Alsatian answer to Winter. A grand platter of house-smoked meats and sausages that will include traditional frankfurters, knockwurst, pork knuckle, pork loin and belly, all simmered with our very own sauerkraut, potatoes and mustard.

To start: Classic German “Cheese with Music”

Dessert: Elderflower Gelee

February 9–14

Osso Bucco Milanese

Deep Winter Comfort. Slow braised veal shanks scented with bay laurel and cinnamon accompanied by Saffron Risotto and Slivered Celery.

To start: Insalata Tre-Colore

Dessert: Zabaglione with Red Wine Figs

- more-

109 East 50th Street
On Park Avenue
New York, NY 10022
212.593.3333

insideparknyc.com

Inside Park Heritage Cuisine Prix-Fixe Dinners, continued

February 16–21

Coq au Vin

The Real Rooster here. Our Coq au Vin is made with guinea fowl and is marinated for 96 hours in red wine and spices. Served with button mushrooms, bacon lardons and glazed cipollini onions.

To start: Chicken Liver Toasts with Mizuna

Dessert: Classic Crème Brûlée

(February 23–March 5: Inside Park will be closed for minor kitchen renovations.)

March 9–14

Bollito Misto

Another one pot wonder. Our mixed boil is made with poached chicken, veal breast, smoked tongue and cotechino (pork sausage), which when all combined makes a rich and luscious broth. Accompanied by housemade mustard fruits and gremolata.

To start: Cured Anchovy and Egg Crostini

Dessert: Heirloom Citrus Panna Cotta

March 16–21

New England Boiled Dinner

The hearty American one pot meal. House-cured corned beef, slowly simmered with turnips, cabbage, rutabaga and carrots. Served with freshly grated horseradish and potato rolls.

To start: Fried Clam Bellies

For Dessert: Cranberry and Pear Grunt with Biscuit Topping and Nutmeg

Inside Park at St. Bart's
109 East 50th Street – Entrance on Park Avenue
New York, NY 10022
Phone: (212) 593-3333
www.insideparknyc.com